School of Theatre and Dance
THE 6950: Applied Theatre (Acting)

MFA Acting Coordinator: Prof. Tim Altmeyer

Instructor: C. Mitchell, L.W. Caldwell (or SoTD Supervisor), C. Rua

Meeting Times: Rehearsal times are TBA, typically 6:00-11:00pm weeknights and a four hour rehearsal during the weekend. 10 of 12 rehearsals are typically scheduled for tech rehearsals. Production/rehearsal schedules will be supplied at the beginning of the rehearsal process.

Office Hours: Varies with Instructor of Record

Credits: 1

Prerequisites: Permission of MFA Acting Graduate Coordinator or Instructor

Course Description:

Specialized practical experience through participation in realized productions.

Purpose Of Course:

By using department production work as a learning tool, the student gains an understanding of the actor's contributions and responsibilities in production through practical application of knowledge, including an effective approach to and execution of an acting process. To evaluate the student, the instructor will consider his/her working methods, skills, progress and professional conduct in completing an assigned role in production.

Expected Outcome:

MFA Students will demonstrate artistry and professional behavior in rehearsal and production.

Attendance:

Students are expected at all rehearsals. Tardiness will affect the final grade.

Deadlines:

Students are expected to meet all deadlines including off-book dates.

Dress:

Students are expected to dress appropriately for rehearsals in a way that allows actors to rehearse and explore specific character and scene work. It is expected that students will bring the necessary rehearsal clothes to rehearsal, including appropriate footwear, trousers/skirts, vests/jackets, and knee/elbow pads as necessary. In rare and individual circumstances, the costume shop will supply specialty pieces.

Grading:

Students will be assessed according to the following:

- Synthesis of connections between voice, movement, and intellect/analysis in character creation
- Integration of scholarly research with creative imagination in character interpretation
- Exhibits ethical behaviors, cultural sensitivity, teamwork skills, collegiality, and communication skills
- Working relationship with Director

- Working relationship with Stage Manager and Stage Management Team
- Punctuality and attendance
- Proper Preparation (met off-book deadlines, prepared for scene work, etc.)
- Thoroughness and attention to detail
- Ability to work calmly and effectively under pressure
- Ability to maintain a consistent performance

Grading Scale:

Academic Honesty Policy:

UF students have the responsibility to conduct themselves in an honest and ethical manner while pursuing their studies. They are expected to abide by the UF Academic Honesty Policy, which defines an academic honesty offense as "the act of lying, cheating, or stealing academic information so that one gains academic advantage." In the context of this course, this includes conducting original research and properly citing sources for any materials (both printed and online) used in writing the supporting research paper. Submitting work that has been plagiarized will result in a failing grade.
