Spring 2026	MW 3:00- 6:00 pm / 310 FAC	School of Art & Art History
	Class Section 25773	Instructor: Tatiana Glakhova

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course emphasizes design processes, methodologies, and communication theories in order to foster the relationship between content and meaning. Students will learn the fundamental processes that explore complex problems in art and design. This course will also teach fundamental principles of design and its application.

COURSE STRUCTURE

This course will include a combination of textbook readings, research from additional sources, analysis and critique of 'found' design, in-class workshops, and studio design production. Studio assignments will involve hand work and digital typographic design and illustration using Adobe Illustrator & Photoshop (InDesign may also be utilized). You are expected to attend all classes and participate in critique of your own and others' work. Work that isn't presented at critique will be considered late. Critiques will provide an opportunity to speak in detail about concepts and ideas, to identify mistakes and discuss possible alternative solutions, and to recognize what is working well in a project.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- › Effectively manipulate the elements and principals of two dimensional design
- › Create non-objective, abstract, and representational compositions
- › Develop inventive concepts using various problem-solving strategies

There are no required texts.

OFFICE HOURS & COMMUNICATION

Email Contact: glakhova.t@ufl.edu

Office Hours: After class or via Zoom

It is the student's responsibility to frequently check the Canvas course page and their UFL e-mail. Those are the instructor's primary methods of reaching students outside of class. If you are having problems with any aspect of this course, you can talk with the instructor privately or on Zoom. You can talk with the SAAH Advisor's Office or, if needed, with the Director of the SAAH.

TENTATIVE WEEKLY SCHEDULE

Please refer to the Canvas course to see the updated day-to-day detailed schedule.

Week1 Introduction

Week2-5 Project 1

Week6-10 Project 2

Week11-15 Project 3

Week16 Reflection

No classwork is scheduled for Reading Days or Exam Week

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Attendance is required for this class. You can miss two class days without penalty. Two late arrivals (after class begins) or early departures (before class is dismissed or ends) equal one absence. All unexcused absences after the first two cost -5 points each from the final grade in the course.

More than 6 unexcused absences of any kind – missing more than 3 weeks of class – equals automatic course failure unless we make documented accommodations in advance.

To receive an “excused” absence, you must do one of the following:

- › Notify the instructor before class begins that you will not be able to attend class; we can make arrangements, if needed, for you to participate remotely.
- › You must provide official documentation of a university-sanctioned reason to receive an excused absence. Military service, varsity sports travel, and illness are common excused absences when documented by a written note from a commanding officer, coach, or doctor.

Requirements for class attendance, excused absences, make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies, found at:
catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/

Regardless of the type of absence, you are still required to complete assignments, so it is vital that you contact the instructor as soon as possible to discuss your options. It is your responsibility to keep track of your attendance record in Canvas.

ABSENCES FOR RELIGIOUS HOLIDAYS

Students will be excused from class or other scheduled academic activity to observe a religious holiday of their faith with prior notification to the instructor. Students shall be permitted a reasonable amount of time to make up for the material or activities covered in their absence. Students shall not be penalized due to absence from class or other scheduled academic activity because of religious observances.

DEADLINES

All deadlines will be announced in class. All projects and exercises are due on the day and time given and will be considered late when critique has begun or after work has been called for. Late work is not accepted. Be sure to present your work on each critique session and show your progress. If you are absent or tardy it is your responsibility to obtain missed information from another student in the class.

If the reason for lateness falls under the excused absence list, illness or death in the family, there will be no penalty as long as work is completed by the new agreed upon date. However, students must always contact the instructor prior to the due date with an explanation for the absence.

COURSE SPECIFIC GRADING & EVALUATION

Students will receive a detailed project sheet for each project outlining important dates, learning outcomes and evaluation criteria. Projects are due at the beginning of each class period on the assigned due date. FAILURE TO MEET DEADLINES WILL AFFECT YOUR GRADE IN THIS CLASS.

The final grade will result from:

» 70% – SUM OF 4 PROJECTS

Project 1: 15% Project 2: 25% Project 3: 20% Project 4: 10%

» 10% – SUM OF 4 QUIZZES about vocabulary and type identification

» 10% – PROFESSIONALISM and engagement through workshops, in-class activities, and process documents

» 10% – PORTFOLIO showing project revisions and improvements since the project due date(s)

» 10% – Extra credits FEATURE YOUR DESIGN WORK through Behance, Instagram, and Dribbble

- The project grade will result from evaluation of: concept, form, craft, and presentation.
- Professionalism means that you bring requested supplies to class; complete and bring with you out-of-class assignments, sketches, books and notes; Provide constructive feedback during critiques and during group discussions; are prepared to discuss assigned readings; always act professionally, are punctual and meet project deadlines. Professionalism will also be evaluated individually for each project.
