

SYLLABUS
School of Music
University of Florida

Individual Project in Lieu of Thesis

MUS 6973 (3)
Spring 2026
Individually Scheduled

Professor: Dr. Megan M. Sheridan
Office: MUB 122
Office hours: MW pd. 3
Telephone: (352) 273-3192
Email: mmsheridan@ufl.edu

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Creative project or graduate recital in lieu of written thesis. Project or recital must be acceptable to the candidate's supervisory committee and to the Graduate School.

RECOMMENDED TEXTS

American Psychological Association. (2019). Publication manual of the American Psychological Association (7th ed.). Author.

COURSE GOALS

The goal of this course is for the student to engage in meaningful research activities related to completion of a final project in the Master of Music in Music Education program.

Information about university-wide policies and resources can be found here.

ASSESSMENT

This course is graded S/U.

Each student and the instructor will develop an individualized research plan for the student. Successful completion of that plan will result in a passing grade of 'S.'