

Scene Painting TPA 2075 credits: 3
Spring 2026
The University of Florida – College of Fine Arts
School of Theatre & Dance
Instructor: Professor Mihai Ciupe

Course Meets: Monday and Wednesday – 2^h and 3rd period

Office Hours: Wednesday, 6th -7th period or by appointment

Office: Room 206 E-mail: mciupe@ufl.edu

Course Description: Utilization of advanced and experimental techniques unique to theatre graphics; exploration of various media for 3-dimensional representation in scene and design and model building.

Course Objectives: - The purpose of this class is to learn about the techniques, tools, language, and methods of scenic artists. The class provides a laboratory for the practice of scenic painting procedures and guides the student to develop basic skills in color mixing, representing different textures, and representing the volume by using light and shadow.

The class also prepares students to present and discuss their work, as they will do in a professional situation.

Class time will be used also to identify strengths as well as areas for improvement, to broaden and refine individual abilities.

- PROGRAM OUTCOMES: This course addresses the following program outcomes:

1. Developing necessary skills to efficiently execute a paint elevation on typical theatrical surfaces.
2. Providing students with training that will enable them to actively participate in the painting process of the scenery for live performance.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: After completing this course, students should be able to:

1. Communicate and discuss with the set designer challenges and options related to a specific painted elevation.
2. Assess the techniques involved in reproducing a particular painted elevation on a large-scale surface.
3. Reproduce a painted elevation on a large-scale surface.
